

PRIVACY POLICY

This website is operated by DAT A/S, Lufthavnsvej 4, DK-6580, Denmark.

This privacy statement covers only the information collected on this website and does not cover any other information collected offline by DAT.

All DAT sites are currently covered by this privacy policy.

SAFETY

The personal information provided on the DAT website and online credit card transactions are transmitted via a secure server and are processed by the DAT as a data controller.

DAT undertakes to manage personal information with high standards of information transmission security.

We inform and ensure that all appropriate physical, electronic and administrative measures are taken to maintain the security and accuracy of the personal information that is collected, limiting the number of people who have physical access to the database servers, as well as employing electronic security systems and password protections that protect and protect against unauthorized access to data.

The DAT website uses Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) encryption technology, in order to protect personal information during transport and data transmission. SSL encrypts the order information such as name, address and credit card number.

The DAT customer service center operates within a private and secure network.

Note that the e-mail is not encrypted and is not considered a secure means of transmitting credit card information.

PRIVACY POLICY

In order to guarantee the provision of high quality services, DAT uses information deriving from interactions with customers within the website.

In respect of customer privacy, DAT has implemented procedures to ensure that personal information collected is handled in a safe and responsible manner.

DAT has published this privacy policy to illustrate and make transparent the practices for collecting personal information.

Given the constant technological advances, it should be noted that this information may undergo or have already undergone changes.

We therefore invite you to view them in a systematic manner, in order to implement any changes and updates.

INFORMATION COLLECTED

You can browse the DAT website without providing any personally identifiable information. However, you may be required to provide personally identifiable information in some areas of the site.

In some cases, if you choose not to provide the requested information, you may not be able to access all parts of the site or take part in all of its features.

HOW THE COLLECTED INFORMATION IS USED

We process personal data for these and related purposes:

- Provision of services (creating and managing your account, booking your flight, managing payments, reimbursements). Legal basis for this purpose is performance of a contract with you and compliance to the legal obligations.
- Debt collection. Legal basis is our legitimate interest - to protect our business from insolvent customers.

STORAGE OF DATA

We retain personal information in an identifiable format as long as required by law or as needed for our business purposes. We retain personal information for longer periods of time than is legally required if it is in our legitimate business interests and is not prohibited by law. For the exact retention periods, please contact us directly.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A DATA SUBJECT

We have a legal obligation to ensure that your personal data is kept accurate and up to date. We kindly ask you to assist us to comply with this obligation by ensuring that you inform us of any changes that have to be made to any of your personal data that we are processing.

You may, at any time, exercise the following rights with respect to our processing of your personal data by contacting us via contact information referred to in this Privacy policy:

Right to access: you have the right to request access to any data that can be considered your personal data. This includes the right to be informed on whether we process your personal data, what personal data categories are being processed by us, and the purpose of our data processing;

Right to rectification: you have the right to request that we correct any of your personal data if you believe that it is inaccurate or incomplete;

Right to object: you are entitled to object to certain processing of personal data, including for example, making automated decisions based on your personal data or when we otherwise base the processing of your personal data on our legitimate interest;

Right to restrict personal data processing: you have the right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal data if you wish to: (i) object the lawfulness of the processing; (ii) fix unlawful processing of personal data; (iii) receive or avoid deletion of personal data for establishing or defending against legal claims; or (iv) demand restriction of the processing until assessing the plausibility of DAT's legitimate interest in the specific processing activity;

Right to erasure: you may also request your personal data to be erased if the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, or if you consider that the processing is unlawful, or if you consider that the personal data has to be erased to enable us to comply with a legal requirement;

Right to data portability: if your personal data is being automatically processed with your consent or on the basis of a mutual contractual relationship, you may request that we provide you that personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. Moreover, you may request that the personal data is transmitted to another controller. Bear in mind that the latter can only be done if that is technically feasible;

Right to withdraw your consent: in cases where the processing is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent to such processing at any time without any adverse effect;

Right to submit your claim with the supervisory authority: if you are not satisfied with our response to your request in relation to personal data or you believe we are processing your personal data not in accordance with the law, you can submit your claim with the Danish Data Protection supervisory authority.

Please note that you will need to provide sufficient information for us to handle your request regarding your rights. Prior to answering your request, we may ask you to provide additional information for the purposes of authenticating you and evaluating your request.

DPO

We have a designated person for all privacy and data protection related matters. Should you wish to implement your data subject rights or have any question regarding your personal data processing, please contact our Data Protection Officer via dataprotection@dat.dk.
